Import
Test Case #	Test Case Purpose	Input Data	Output Data
1	Determine the validity of the imported file by importing a valid file (text file)	database.txt	Output: Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added. Employee added.
2	Determine the validity of the imported file by importing an invalid file	Does not allow you to select a non txt file	N/A

Export
1	Determine the validity of exporting a file successfully	After clicking on the "Export" option, the information of the employees gets exported in the form of a text file.	Output: The Database File has been Exported. (A textfile gets downloaded to your computer)
2	Determine the validity of exporting a file when the database is empty	After clicking on the "Export" option, the information of the employees gets exported in the form of a text file. In this case, a file will not be exported since the database in empty	Output: Employee database is empty
3	Determine the validity of exporting a file not as a text file	After clicking on the "Export" option, the information of the employees tries to get exported in the form of a text file.	Output: The computer will ask to save as a text file instead